

Directions:

The Glen is in Endwell in the Town of Union about six miles west of Binghamton, New York and a little over a mile east of Endicott, New York.

- From Hooper Road in Endwell, NY go east on Country Club Road. After top of the hill turn left on Robinson Hill Road. Go 1.2 miles. Parking lot, will be on the right. Look for Waterman Sign and yellow trail markers.
- Coming from Oakdale Mall, go west on Harry L Drive which becomes Watson Boulevard. Turn right on Country Club Road. Near the top of the hill turn right on Robinson Hill Road. Go 1.2 miles. Parking lot will be on the right. Look for Waterman Sign and yellow trail markers.

-
- Waterman Center received the IBM Glen in August 2004.
 - In the 1940s IBM constructed trails, steps and bridges in the Glen.
 - The Glen is over 200 acres and has some of the oldest trees in the area.

Ways to Support the IBM Glen

- Become a Waterman Center Member.
- Make a Donation to the Waterman Center.
- Volunteer your time.

You can find all this information on our website along with other programs at the Waterman Center.

Waterman Conservation Education Center
403 Hilton Road Apalachin, NY 13732
www.watermancenter.org
E-mail: info@watermancenter.org
Phone: (607)625-2221

WATERMAN CONSERVATION EDUCATION CENTER

WATERMAN CONSERVATION
EDUCATION CENTER
APALACHIN, NY

"A Place for all Seasons"

Our mission is to promote conservation education and outdoor recreation and to encourage the appreciation and understanding of the total environment.

IBM Glen

Trail Map

Endwell, NY

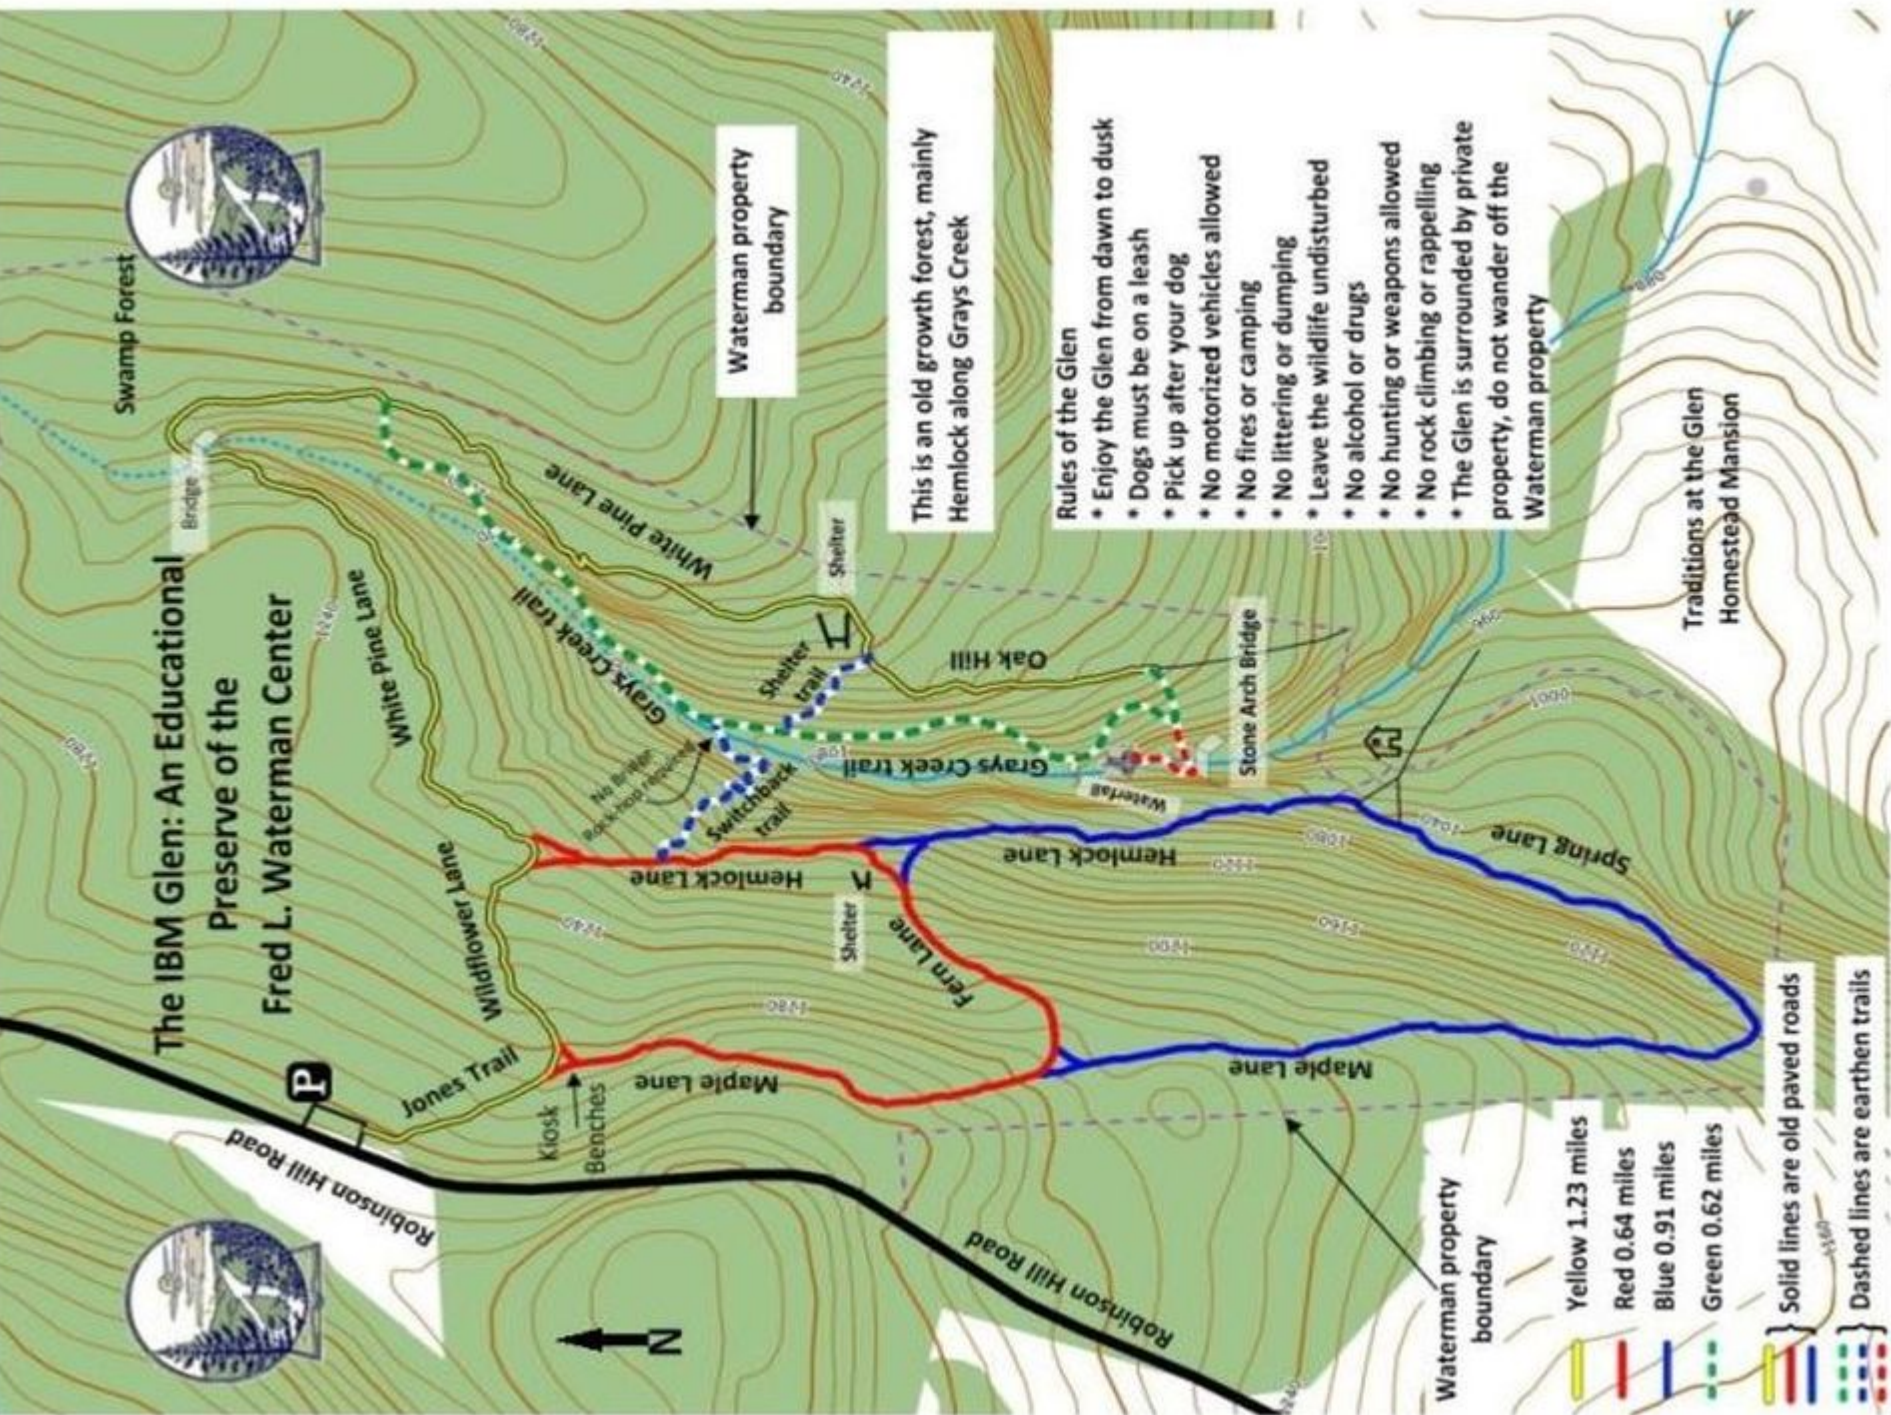

Trails are Open Dawn to Dusk

The IBM Glen: An Educational Preserve of the Fred L. Waterman Center

Swamp Forest

Waterman property boundary

This is an old growth forest, mainly Hemlock along Grays Creek

Rules of the Glen

- Enjoy the Glen from dawn to dusk
- Dogs must be on a leash
- Pick up after your dog
- No motorized vehicles allowed
- No fires or camping
- No littering or dumping
- Leave the wildlife undisturbed
- No alcohol or drugs
- No hunting or weapons allowed
- No rock climbing or rappelling
- The Glen is surrounded by private property, do not wander off the Waterman property

Traditions at the Glen Homestead Mansion

- Yellow 1.23 miles
- Red 0.64 miles
- Blue 0.91 miles
- Green 0.62 miles
- Solid lines are old paved roads
- Dashed lines are earthen trails

Waterman Conservation Center Headquarters
403 Hilton Road
Apalachin, NY 13732

607-625-2221
www.watermancenter.org

Scale 1:6815 1 inch = 568 feet

